

Eleiko Weightlifting Leather Belt, Brown, L

- ✓ Crafted in Sweden
- ✓ Swedish rawhide
- ✓ Stainless steel buckle

This handcrafted leather belt is made with the high-quality Swedish leather. The vegetable-tanned leather maintains its natural colour and ages gracefully over a lifetime of lifting. The robust stainless steel belt buckle is easy to use and keeps the belt securely fastened. The leather is initially firm and gradually molds to the lifter over time, ensuring a perfect training experience for years to come. The belt provides optimal support for training sessions and lifts on the competition stage.

Features

Quality craftsmanship
Made in Sweden from sustainably sourced rawhide, the natural leather weightlifting belt is crafted to last a lifetime.

A lifetime of lifting
The leather will age to perfection; your grit and determination on the platform captured and celebrated with each mark.

Optimal support
A wide 4 in / 10 cm belt hugs the back for the best support and tapers to a narrower front buckle for comfort.

Eleiko details
The belt design includes a Raise the Bar embossed detail, heavy-duty metal pins and a two-pronged stainless-steel buckle.
