

Eleiko Weightlifting Leather Belt, Black, M

- ✓ Stainless steel buckle
- ✓ Made in Sweden
- ✓ Genuine leather

Handcrafted in Sweden, Eleiko's black leather Weightlifting Belt is made with vegetable-tanned leather that is treated with a special coating to prevent scratches and surface marks. A robust stainless steel belt buckle is easy to use and keeps the belt securely fastened. The leather is initially firm and gradually molds to the lifter over time, ensuring a perfect training experience for years to come. The belt provides optimal support for training sessions and lifts on the competition stage.

Features

Quality craftsmanship
Made in Sweden with genuine vegetable-tanned leather.

Long-lasting performance
Special treatment is applied to the leather to protect against scuff marks and scratches, so the belt maintains its appearance even with years of heavy use.

Optimal support
A wide 4 in / 10 cm back is supportive and comfortable and tapers to a narrower front belt buckle.

Eleiko details
The belt design includes a Raise the Bar embossed detail, heavy-duty metal pins and a two-pronged stainless-steel buckle.
