

Eleiko Powerlifting Technique Bar

10 kg

Develop technique and practice good form to build a solid foundation and prepare for bigger lifts and new personal bests with this Eleiko Powerlifting Technique Bar. Robust bushings and a chromed steel grip replicate the feeling of our standard powerlifting bar facilitating a seamless transition between the two. This bar is great for children and beginners. Sturdy bushings and a moderately aggressive chromed steel grip ideal for skill development establish lifting form with the same feel of our powerlifting bars ensuring a smooth transition from technique to training and beyond. The bar features grip markings for powerlifting.
